PROCLAMATION
NORTH DAKOTA TOURISM WEEK
MAY 10-18, 2008

WHEREAS, North Dakota's tourism industry is the second-largest industry in the state, with out-of-state visitor spending contributing $3.8 billion to the state's overall economy; and

WHEREAS, the travel industry provided more than 30,200 jobs in North Dakota, generating a payroll of $733 million; and

WHEREAS, in 2007, each dollar spent in advertising North Dakota's tourism offerings generated $123 in visitor spending, bringing nearly $204 million to the state; and

WHEREAS, given these notable contributions to the economic, social and cultural well-being of the citizens of North Dakota, it is fitting that we recognize the importance of the state's travel industry; and

WHEREAS, citizens are encouraged to vacation in North Dakota's backyard and experience the many historical, cultural and recreational activities and destinations that make our state legendary.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim May 10-18, 2008, TOURISM WEEK in the state of North Dakota.

John Hoeven
Governor
